Local Brochure Distribution & Home Visits. Our team regularly visits towns, villages and local communities to distribute our brochures. From time to time, we may revisit properties to collect brochures and offer residents the opportunity to have any unwanted jewellery, gold, silver, antiques or other valuables assessed, if you do not need or want our services please leave the brochure outside or have it recycled.

*All valuations are free, with absolutely no obligation to sell. Private home visits are also available by appointment. We are an independent company and are not affiliated with, endorsed by, or officially associated with any of the brands or companies featured in this brochure.
